

A new year and a new start for anyone seeking a divorce

DATE: JANUARY 2009

Pictons Solicitors will be offering free drop-in appointments for anyone needing legal advice about getting a divorce in the new year. From 12th to 23rd January, Pictons' Luton office will provide free 30 minute consultations for new clients who would like information about the divorce process.

Many marriage breakups occur in January following the Christmas holiday, and numbers have increased by 50 percent since last year fuelled partly by the continuing credit crunch.

Sukhdeep Saini, a Partner at Pictons commented: "By offering this service, if anyone has reached the unfortunate decision to divorce, this is an ideal opportunity for them to get some free advice. Divorce can be a lengthy and complex process but by offering these free consultations, we hope to help people make informed decisions about the options and remedies available to them, particularly in the current economic climate. I would hope other solicitors follow our example in their local community."

The drop-in service will be available from Monday 12th to Friday 23rd January 2009 between 10am and 4pm at Pictons' Luton office - 28 Dunstable Road, Luton, Bedfordshire LU1 1DY. Appointments are on a first-come, first-served basis and are only available to new clients.
