

Pictons and Families Need Fathers in Harpenden

DATE: October 2010

Pictons are continuing to support Families Need Fathers, the UK's leading shared parenting charity.

As well as continuing to provide legal advice and support to the FNF groups in Stevenage and Hemel Hempstead, Pictons Luke Thompson will be the regular lawyer and joint host of the new FNF group in Harpenden.

The group will meet on the fourth Monday of each month, at the Three Horseshoes pub, East Common, Harpenden with the first meeting set to take place on Monday 22nd November at 7:30pm.

Luke Thompson, an Associate and Family Solicitor at Pictons comments "I am excited to be part of the formation of this new group. The support Families Needs Fathers provides to families is an invaluable service to the public which I am happy and proud to continue to promote and support".
